SATURDAY JANUARY 19, 1901.
FOUR HUNDRED YEARS BEHIND THE TIMES.

When the people of Nevada take their immediate environment in review they have to conclude that civilization is making progress slow, but the more intelligent are aware of the causes that have been at work to lead to a belief that civilization of Nevada is upon the plane of the civilization of the fifteenth century.

In the fifteenth century civilization began to appear in organized form and the better parts in human nature began making an appearance in the influence they secured for the general good.
In 1464 Louis XI King of France declaring to make an alliance with the Swiss, made an offer of money to secure it. He named a sum that he would pay to each canton which was discontented by the Swiss who were among the most advanced in civilization at the time.

It was argued by many that the influence of money was corrupting and degrading and should not be received as a consideration for their support to the king. The majority who were less scrupulous scornfully repudiated the fear that the king's money would bring a taint upon the independence and good morals of the country, which later opinion prevailed.

Mention is made of the historical fact to illustrate the present in Nevada by taking it into comparison to ascertain present civilization in the State. Over four hundred years ago it was deemed by the more advanced among the people of Switzerland that money when received as a consideration for their support to the king of France was degrading.

The dawn of civilization was making its appearance in Europe at the time which accounts for the scorn manifested by the majority who overruled the better sentiment of the minority and the money was received. The more advanced condition of civilization in Europe more than four hundred years ago is the moral civilization of to-day in Nevada, which explains the odium that attaches to our State, and to its people when abroad.

The State is regarded by people whose sense in morals is higher and better than anything that has appeared in Nevada as a pest hole of iniquity.

When it is learned by people in other communities that like conditions as those that are present in connection with the lottery scheme which will shortly come before the legislature for its action have existed in the State from the beginning, should there be any surprise when we are regarded as the off-scourings of the earth? There conditions have been conceived, born and fostered in politics in the State, directed by those whose sense of moral rectitude is no higher than the civilization of the fifteenth century.

The corrupt use of money has been the beginning, and it is to be hoped by all good people will cause the destruction of the corrupt villainy which has brought the most disgusting degradation to the State. So pronounced has been the domination of corruption in the State for more than three decades that the most brazen shamelessness has been present to accomplish their ends, which have ever been connected with the corrupt use of money, which is unblushingly relied on at this time to buy a legislature to pass an amendment to the constitution of the State authorizing a lottery system in the commonwealth.

The scheme is so odious that it has reached the congress of the United States, and proposed legislation to secure an appropriation to aid irrigation in the State is jeopardized to an extent that a warning is given by our Congressman, Francis G. Newlands, that the lottery scheme may defeat the bill before Congress to aid the State, but such a suit will be in line with past influence in the State exercised by those who have ruled it through corrupt politics.

The JOURNAL has often said that these corrupt politicians have been enemies to the State who have assisted to keep it in bondage to a most corrupt system, which has caused its disgrace, which disgrace has attached to the best people there are in it, wherever they go. There has not been in all the years mentioned any intellectual movement within Nevada, nor has there been any social development worth mentioning which had its origin in intellectual pursuits.

There has been in Nevada for its edification all the years it has been a State an old, one-grooved, worn-out, unproductive despotism, arising from an Excellent Cough Medicine.

The process of manufacturing figs is used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.
CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

corrupt politics directed by corrupt men who have not been identified with the State in any manner except in name. These men have been aided by those in the State whose chief ambition has been to engage in corrupt work assigned to them by those who were not residents of the State.

In the lottery scheme there is a duplicate of former conditions by non-residents, and the class who have aided to make the State a rotten borough are engaged in the work of continuing and adding to its former degraded relation to other communities.

Sheep and Cattle Men Disagree.

J. E. Humphries of this city has returned from the annual convention of the livestock association held at Salt Lake City.

The other Nevada representatives were John Sparks, Bradley brother and Mr. Russell of the Elko county. Mr.
Humphries said the proceedings were both interesting and profitable. The sheepmen and cattle-raisers will probably part company and hold separate conventions hereafter, as a result of this gathering.

The rock upon which they split was the question of leasing public lands for grazing purposes. The former oppose governmental action favoring this matter and the latter desire it.

Legislatorial Preliminaries.

The preliminary bout of Carson's greatest attraction this year is being pulled off in Reno, but up to the present writing the thousand dollar license has not been put up in either coin or lottery stock.

A goodly number of the State's representatives are gathering here and all sorts of caucuses and conferences are being held.

Another Find.

The crew of the Sacramento beer hall, from proprietor to bouncer, feel elated over a discovery they have made a couple of miles north of town. It consists of a sixteen-inch lead carrying $7 values in gold and silver. They intend to incorporate as the Big Bill Mining Company.

Reno's Representative.

A. A. Hibbard of this city is in attendance upon the second annual convention of the Pacific Coast Co-operative Union of America, which is being held in Oakland. He was honored with the secretaryship of the convention and placed upon several important committees.

A Delightful Reception.

Last evening the ladies of the guild entertained the choristers of Trinity church. The party was held in Investment hall and was well attended.
The evening was spent in conversation and dancing. Delicious refreshments were served.

Light on the Case.

John Blum informs the JOURNAL that the man found dead beside the track near the State Line mill spent three days in Nevada. All that is known of him is that he falls from Denver and has relation in Los Angeles.

Their Last Meeting.

Chief Constable George S. Wilson informs the JOURNAL that a meeting of Riverside Council No. 2, Order of Chosen Friends, has been held and the business of the lodge wound up. All accounts were squared and the council closed.

Try Manheim's golden nuggets.

Frank Buchanan, a prospector, found a skeleton buried in Pinetnut the other day.

Don't Forget the Place— JOHN SUNDERLAND'S, Virginia Street, RENO, NEVADA.

Situation Grows Worse.

Special to the JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, January 18.—The situation in Venezuela is assuming a serious aspect. The dispatches of Minister Loomis are being censored.
The Gunboat Scorpion has been ordered to remain at La Guayra, where the situation is growing critical. Several cruisers are likely to be sent there.

The Newlands Bill.

Special to the JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, January 18.—The House committee on public lands gave a hearing on the Newlands irrigation reservoirs bill today. Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock sent a communication stating that he strongly favored the measure.

Victoria Very Ill.

Special to the JOURNAL.
LONDON, January 18.—The Queen's health is failing and her medical advisers are alarmed. It is stated in well-informed circles that owing to heart weakness her death may take place at any moment.

Colorado Opera Bouffe.

Special to the JOURNAL.
MEEKER, Colorado, January 18.—Roosevelt was pursued by wolves today and was forced to take to a tree, where he remained four hours until rescued by his companions.

Army Bill Passed.

Special to the JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, January 18.—The Army Reorganization bill passed the Senate today by a vote of 43 to 23. A few unimportant changes were made in the measure.

SAGEBRUSH OCCURRENCES

What Nevada Papers Say About Happenings in This State.

The railroad cutoff at Lovelock is nearly completed.

A case of smallpox has broken out at Fay, Lincoln county.

A. O. Kyle has resigned as superintendent of the Union Consolidated mine.

Samuel Barbark, an old resident of Lyon county, died in San Francisco this week.

An Indian named Mike was accidentally shot near Austin last week and lived but a few hours.

A consignment of silver bars and gold dust has just left the Dexter-Tuscarora mill, headed for the refinery at Argentine, Kansas.

Several battles between business firms to shy $800,000 the Japanese seals have been levied without settling their accounts.

The trip on the Sage route between Elko and Tuscarora, 115 miles, is being made in sleighs the entire distance. At Tuscarora Saturday morning the snow was two feet deep on the level.

The Directory Revised.

Several names were omitted in the JOURNAL'S 1901 directory of Reno.
Since it was issued a number of citizens have changed addresses, and a number of new people have arrived since the canvass was made.

A request is hereby made that people whose names do not appear or where there is an error in address, report the same to the JOURNAL office without delay. A supplement will be printed and distributed free to all holders of directories.

The revised addition will be on sale at Harry Davis' store and at this office for $1.25 each. Secure a volume in time as there remain but 100 more directories.

NEWLANDS ATTACKS LOTTERY.

Let Boodlers Take Warning.

NEVADA IS IN GRAVE DANGER

The Forces of Corruption Cannot Prevail Against the Government.

"I have received the anti-lottery address and earnestly endorse its statements. The evidence is indubitable of a corrupt combination to influence newspapers and legislators by gifts of stock in the lottery. No legislator who votes for it in the face of adverse declaration of all political parties in the last campaign can hope to escape the reprobation of the people."

"I am greatly amazed that any one should think the lottery can succeed if authorized by the State. The national Government would crush it as it crushed the Louisiana lottery. The inauguration of a lottery will open up continuous warfare with the national Government at a time when national aid is being sought for State development. We are now engaged in educational work as to water storage in Nevada with good prospects of success, but if a lottery is adopted, the present friendly disposition of Congress will change to reprobation."

"I can imagine nothing that will so antagonize eastern sentiment. The Louisiana representatives are vigorous in their denunciation of the Louisiana lottery. They insist that it corrupted politics, the courts, the clergy, the newspapers and the people of Louisiana and that it diverted from State development and brought their State into national contempt. The Louisiana representatives, falling in the fight against corrupt influence at home, inaugurated the national legislation regarding the mails and interstate commerce, which destroyed it."

"Nevada can rest assured that I will spare no effort to defeat the lottery before the people, and should it be carried, then secure its suppression by National action. The forces of corruption can alone carry the scheme through, and a result so obtained is entitled to no respect from a representative of Nevada."

FRANCIS G. NEWLANDS.

OH, WHY ART THOU SILENT?

Somebody Must Have Put Cotton in the Ears of the Press.

An Examiner special from Carson says:

A. Livingston, who secured the passage of Nevada's prize-fight law, is recognized chief of the lottery promoters. He said tonight: "I am not surprised at Mr. Van Duzer's confidence in his election as Speaker. We have not taken any part in the organization of either house one way or the other. We do not care who is Speaker or who is on the committees. The lottery bill will pass both houses undoubtedly, and will be ratified by the people."

Will Virgin, a young political boss, has evidently been elected to command the lottery lobby. Virgin was largely responsible for the re-election of Senator William M. Stewart two years ago against what appeared to be overwhelming odds.

How well he has succeeded so far in promoting the lottery sentiment may be judged from the fact that of all the publicity that has been given the lottery movement, anti-lottery planks in all the State platforms and anti-lottery speeches from every stump in the last campaign, only two newspapers in the entire State have for the last month issued one line of protest against the proposed delivery of Nevada to the lottery schemers.

To read the twenty or thirty other newspapers published in the State one would never know that such a thing as a Nevada lottery was ever contemplated.

They do not even mention it as a news item, and such silence on so important a subject is at least interesting. They have been called upon by public petition to stand for good morals and oppose the lottery, but they give no response.

An Examiner special from Carson says:

A. Livingston, who secured the passage of Nevada's prize-fight law, is recognized chief of the lottery promoters. He said tonight: "I am not surprised at Mr. Van Duzer's confidence in his election as Speaker. We have not taken any part in the organization of either house one way or the other. We do not care who is Speaker or who is on the committees. The lottery bill will pass both houses undoubtedly, and will be ratified by the people."

Will Virgin, a young political boss, has evidently been elected to command the lottery lobby. Virgin was largely responsible for the re-election of Senator William M. Stewart two years ago against what appeared to be overwhelming odds.

How well he has succeeded so far in promoting the lottery sentiment may be judged from the fact that of all the publicity that has been given the lottery movement, anti-lottery planks in all the State platforms and anti-lottery speeches from every stump in the last campaign, only two newspapers in the entire State have for the last month issued one line of protest against the proposed delivery of Nevada to the lottery schemers.

To read the twenty or thirty other newspapers published in the State one would never know that such a thing as a Nevada lottery was ever contemplated.

They do not even mention it as a news item, and such silence on so important a subject is at least interesting. They have been called upon by public petition to stand for good morals and oppose the lottery, but they give no response.

Lips Are Closed and Sealed.

Nevada editors are having some nasty things said about them by the outside world and the worst thing about it is that the charges are true, with but one exception.

The Nevada papers (JOURNAL, Gazette, Nevada News, White Pine News, and possibly one or two more) are keeping faith with their lords and masters, the lottery harpies. Nary a one of them has gone back on his bargain. Maybe the terms of their contracts hold them too tight for them to hedge.

A Great Production.

The present theatrical season will be replete with revivals of successful "senior" plays, rather than the production of new ones. One of the most important of these will be the revival of the popular Swedish-American comedy, "Ole Olson."

This splendid attraction comes to McKiesick's opera house this evening.

Shooting the Chutes.

The three elements of farce, specialty, comedy and spectacular show are combined in Murry & Mack's latest and most successful laughing success, "Shooting the Chutes," which will be at McKiesick's opera house next Wednesday evening and should be greeted with a packed house.

The Place to Buy.
